

STEEL SERVICE CENTRE LTD - TUBE LASER ENGINEER

Person Specification

Commercial experience

Hands on approach

Change agent within the business – strong character to make and implement changes

Build relationships both internally and externally

Computer literate – ideally CAD expertise

Perseverance and attention to detail is very important

Strong organisational skills

Understanding of quality control and methods for Continuous Improvement

Enthusiastic

Clean driving license as visits to other sites and customer facilities are likely to be required

Manufacturing background

Job Specification

- Programming of BLM Adige LT8 Lasertube. (Training week required in Italy).
- Managing the cutting schedule to meet customer requirements and maximize capacity.
- Provide timing and nesting information for quotations.
- Provide quotations for customers through the Company quotation software.
- Assist the Company Buyer in MRP
- Manage the tube shopfloor staffing capacity.
- Support sales people with technical advice.
- Support sales people with presentations to customers for creative use of tubes and sections.

Work with customers to develop parts for more efficient manufacturing

Main Responsibilities

- Customer liaison

Sales support

Programming

Responsibilities could include

- Planning and management of new tube division of SSC Laser.

Reporting to:

Production Manager

Based at:

Head Office. Hixon, Stafford.

Salary:

Negotiable based on experience.